APPLICATION FOR PERMISSION TO USE AIKAHI PARK SHOPPING CENTER

The Aikahi Park Shopping Center is privately owned and has been developed to provide the general public with a modern, clean, comfortable and safe place at which to shop.

The Center recognizes that from time to time various individuals and groups may desire to use appropriate places in the mall area for activities, which they deem to be of community interest. To accommodate such individuals and groups in a manner and to an extent consonant with the primary commercial purpose of the Shopping Center, the Shopping Center will designate a specific area or areas of the mall which will be available on a "first come, first serve" basis. The Center, however, does not approve/allow of any religious or political interest.

In order for your activity to be considered by the Shopping Center's management, please answer the following questions:
